Loan Cost Example

The total amount that you will pay on this loan may vary depending on when you begin repayment and how you elect to repay. This example provides an estimate based on the standard repayment terms available for this loan.

Repayment option:	Amount of loan:	Interest rate:	Loan term:	Total amount paid over the term of the loan:
Payment and interest accrual will be suspended while in school and during the grace period as defined on the promissory note. This amount assumes that the borrower makes no payments while in school or during the grace period.	$15,000.00	5% fixed	10 years after the period extending from graduation through July 1st of the fourth year following graduation.	$19,091.73

Note: This example assumes that the borrower fulfills all conditions set forth by the promissory note and that the borrower pays the monthly amount due (set by the creditor; not the minimum amount due).
