LIBGUIDES

Medical Education Resources LibGuide

Did you know that the School of Medicine library has a LibGuide dedicated to medical education resources?

The guide contains helpful information on journals, books, and online resources specific to undergraduate, graduate, and continuing medical education and tips for publishing in these resources

Click here to access the LibGuide.

Note: To access the subscribed resources on this guide, you must use your Hofstra username and password. Some of the ebook titles are available via EMIL.

BMJ Case Reports

BMJ Case Reports*— How to Bypass the Publishing Fee

Interested in submitting a case to BMJ Case Reports? The library is an Institutional Fellow! This means that faculty, GME trainees, and other staff do not have to pay the Fellowship fee when submitting to this publication.

Please contact the library for additional information about the code.

VisualDx— Filter by Skin Pigmentation

This tutorial shows you how to apply filters to images in VisualDx. One of the filters featured allows you to filter by skin pigmentation.

Click here to access VisualDx from the SOM Library or here to access from a Northwell Health campus.

Have you written a book chapter or a book?

The Health Sciences Library's Faculty Author Collection displays books authored by Northwell Health and Hofstra Northwell SOM faculty.

Contact Wendy Herman for further information on displaying your work!
