The Osler Society of the Hofstra Northwell School of Medicine and the Northwell Health Department of Psychiatry in conjunction with The National Tourette Center for Excellence at Northwell Health Tourette Association of America, Long Island Chapter Hofstra University Departments of Psychology, Biology and Physics and Astronomy

Proudly present

An Evening of Theater

THE ELEPHANT IN EVERY ROOM I ENTER

Created by Gardiner Comfort and Kel Haney

Using an erratic and energetic performance style, Gardiner Comfort shares his life as an actor with this neurological disorder and discovers, for the first time in his life, how he can be himself.

Hofstra Northwell School of Medicine
500 Hofstra University, Room W134

APRIL 7, 2016

6:30 p.m. Osler Society Reception
7:15 p.m. Welcome - Cathy Budman, MD, Director, National Tourette Center of Excellence at Northwell Health
7:30-8:30 p.m. Performance followed by a panel discussion

“Comfort is a charming, versatile performer: He can dance, shift personas, inhabit multiple characters with dialects and physicality, and somehow exude a vulnerability wrapped in confidence... a talented performer with TS sharing honest, touching stories.”

New York Theater Review.

All Students, Faculty and Staff of Hofstra Northwell School of Medicine, Hofstra University and Northwell Health are welcome, including guests. Space is limited, so please RSVP to Lisa.Martin@hofstra.edu.