

NEGEA Special Interest Group,
Health Humanities as a Teaching & Learning Pedagogy

Facilitator Jasmyne Jackson, MD, MBA
will discuss her JAMA Pediatrics narrative article,

The Doctor Is Out- Reflections on Being a Black, Queer Physician

Dr. Jackson will share her personal and professional views on the content and of the impetus for preparing a narrative for the academic community to read and benefit from across the continuum of medical education.

Tuesday, January 26, 2021 4 pm - 5:15 pm

REGISTER HERE

Jasmyne Jackson, MD, MBA
Boston Combined Residency Program,
Department of Pediatrics, Boston
Medical Center, Boston,
Massachusetts; and Boston Combined
Residency Program, Department of Pediatrics, Boston Children's Hospital,
Boston, Massachusetts.

Anyone who would like to lead a NEGEA Health Humanities SIG Journal Club or presentation please reach out to Alice Fornari, afornari@northwell.edu or Leigh Ann Holterman, leigh.holterman@med.uvm.edu SIG Co-Chairs.

QUESTIONS? REACH OUT TO ALICE FORNARI,
AFORNARI@NORTHWELL.EDU

---