- Prepares current clinicians to be effective leaders and health professions educators

"The skills I gained through this program and the inspiration to continue to grow professionally will no doubt energize my career path and have made me a better clinician. The collegiality and support from fellow students were very reassuring and motivating. Being a part of this group is a source of pride. Beyond acquiring the tools necessary to become a master educator, the community of practice that I am now a part of is invaluable."
