Non-Custodial Parent Information Waiver Request

The Office of Student Finance requires legal parents' financial information on all financial aid applications (FAFSA and Non-Custodial Parent Questionnaire) that will assist in determining eligibility for institutional aid (scholarship/loan).

If a student is unable to acquire this information from the non-custodial parent due to certain situations/circumstances, students may submit this form requesting his/her non-custodial parent's financial information to be waived. Required supporting documentation, as outlined below, __must__ be submitted along with this request.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION:

☐ Written personal statement explaining your family circumstances
☐ Two (2) letters of reference from individuals (non-family) who are intimately familiar with your family circumstances
- Acceptable persons include counselors, clergy members, lawyers, physicians, and educators
- The individual writing the letter must provide adequate detail regarding your situation
- 2 letters of reference must be submitted on his/her respective letterhead containing his/her contact information (name, address, phone number and/or email address)
