Effective June 1, 2020, ZSOM students are not permitted to attend in-person extramural electives. Until further notice, neither credit nor malpractice insurance will be provided for students participating in-person extramural electives. Exceptions will be made for students that must complete an extramural elective to fulfill their military commitment or who wish to participate in a ZSOM-sponsored global health rotation. ZSOM students may complete an online/virtual extramural elective for credit.

If you wish to petition for an exemption to our policy, please fill out the information below.
