

“The artist allows us to see the world in a new way. The artist gives us hope, reminds us we’re not alone, and gives us valuable insights into the human condition. The artist can heal. The artist inspires.”

Photo credit: Kia Michelle Benbow.

Photo credit: Andrew Brilliant.

The Osler Society along with Northwell Health Center for Equity of Care, Northwell Health Department of Physical Medicine and Rehabilitation (PM&R), Zucker School of Medicine PM&R Student Interest Group, and N-Able BERG presents

A Dramatic Musical Performance of

STILL STANDING

featuring actress, singer, songwriter, and director

Anita Hollander

Anita Hollander lost her leg to cancer in 1977. Returning to rehearsals just weeks after the amputation of her leg, she went on to have a successful international musical theater career, starring in many New York shows, including her own funny and moving one-woman show, Still Standing.

Zucker School of Medicine students will interview Anita Hollander after the performance of Still Standing.

Wednesday, April 13, 2022, 6-7:30 p.m.

Medical Education Theater
Room W134 Zucker School of Medicine
Hofstra University, North Campus

Please note: Participants will have the option to participate virtually.

Advance registration is required.

Register here to attend in person or via Zoom or visit <https://tinyurl.com/OslerRSVP>.

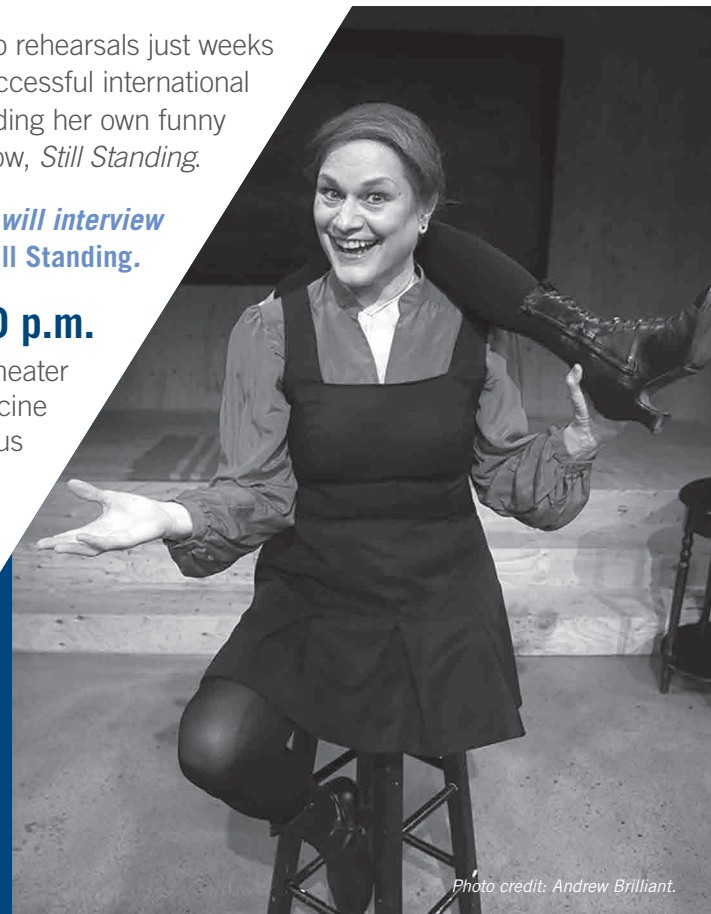

Photo credit: Andrew Brilliant.

DONALD AND BARBARA
ZUCKER SCHOOL of MEDICINE
AT HOFSTRA/NORTHWELL®